China has been growing rapidly for the last 3 decades and China is more and more integrated into the world's economy. As the result, we can see Private Equity/Venture Capital and Merger & Acquisition activities booming in China. Some interesting observations of these financial activities will be presented and discussed and these observations can probably tell some trends and sentiments of how PE/VC and M&A markets in China will develop. #### About the speakers :

Tina Ju is a managing partner of KPCB China. She is also the managing and founding partner of TDF Capital. Tina brings 19 years of combined experience in venture capital, investment banking and operations. Her focus areas of investment include internet, media, consumer services, alternative energy and green tech. Tina has backed some of China's most accomplished entrepreneurs and successful enterprises including Alibaba, Baidu, China Netcom, Focus Media, Hurray, etc. Four successful IPOs and two M&As has helped earn Tina the top venture capitalist award in China in 2005.

Prior to venture capital, Tina served as the CFO/COO for Privylink, a portfolio company of TDF. Before that, she spent twelve years in investment banking at Deutsche Bank (Head of TMT and Transport Asia), Merrill Lynch (Head of Asia Technology and Corporate Finance Execution Team), and Goldman Sachs. She has extensive experience in capital markets, financial restructuring, and providing strategic advisory services in a broad range of industries. Prior to investment banking, Tina worked at IBM as an engineer. Tina holds a MBA from Harvard Business School and a B.Sc. in Industrial Engineering and Operations Research from UC Berkeley.

Mr. Yu Wei, as a Corporate Finance Senior Manager, Yu Wei is responsible for managing different types of transactions including AIM flotation, fund raisings, pre-acquisition and pre-investment due-diligence reviews.

In addition to UK work, he has been actively involved in IPO's of Chinese business on AIM. Acting as the reporting accountant, he has now completed four IPO's of Chinese businesses and currently has a number of such transactions in progress or in pipeline.

In July 2007, Yu Wei relocated from the UK to Shanghai. Except for continuing working on transactions, Yu Wei is also responsible for developing the business in Chinese market for BDO SH, specialised in AIM IPOs.

Prior to joining BDO SH, Yu Wei obtained a MBA in Business Finance and Management, trained and worked in both KPMG Shanghai and Manchester. He joined the firm in September 2005. He is a member of the institution of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales.
